BOYD HONORED WITH SPECIAL RIVER ADVOCATE AWARD BY THE FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE—At the Florida Wildlife Federation's 70th Annual Conservation Awards Banquet, to be

"I am so honored to receive the Special River Advocate of the Year Award from the Florida Wildlife Federation."

Elected to the U. S. House of Representatives in 1996, Allen Boyd represents the largest geographical district in Florida.

Congressman Boyd has been a leading proponent for the proper management of the Apalachicola River.

In addition to water allocation problems, the Apalachicola River has been dredged in an effort to maintain its navigability.

Congressman Boyd continues to help protect the Apalachicola by supporting the Restore the Apalachicola River Act.
